7 Million Persons On Civil Pay Roll Of Red Government

5,000,000 More in Army, Making Average of One

In the civil list 2.970,000 persons are engaged in industries, according to Larin's statement, and 1,500,000 are in transport service. The employees in government offices and institutions number 2,100,000. Timber work and employ 400,000.

Larin says the most sweeping reductions will be made in the Department of Education, which is headed by Lunacharsky, and has 1,200,000 employees. At least one-third of these will be discharged. Teachers in the ordinary schools will be unaffected, but Larin says his commission intends to lop off all sorts of museums, dramatic academies, dancing studios and various side institutions, which, he declares, are emies, dancing studios and various side institutions, which, he declares, are sapping the life from the educational system and squandering money which should be devoted to strengthening free schools and paying better salaries to teachers of ordinary subjects.

By reducing the number of employees on public pay rolls Larin says it will be the purpose of his commission to afford more food for the workers in essential industries, which have starved to support superfluous and faddish institutions.

HAVANA, Dec. 24 .- There is an international flavor to the guest list in Out of Every Ten of the Havana this season. The Sevilla now People in Soviet Russia enrolls a number of distinguished visitors from the Orient, Canada and Eu-

MOSCOW, Nov. 17 (By Mail from a graff correspondent of The Associated Press).—There are 7,000,000 on the Russian government's civil pay roll, says a report just made by Yourey Larin, the former Social Revolutionist leader and chairman of a committee selected by the central government to reduce the number of institutions supported by the government and to climinate unnecessary bureaus.

Karl Radek, Belshevist leader, stated in a recent article that the strength of the Soviet army is 5,000,000 men. The gize of the navy is not known.

Granting that the figures of Radek and Larin are correct, the Bolshevist government has at least 12,000,000 persons on its civil and military pay rolls, or one person cut of every ten in what constitutes Soviet Russia.

In the civil list 2,270,000 persons are engaged in industries, according to W. A. Thompson and A. Katisch, of

New Year's programs and the entries are large. Attendance is excellent.
From New York at the Sevilla are W. D. Staples, Raymond Luigi, Mr. and the Mrs. G. E. Gregory, Miss Agnes Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wagner, Mr. ard Mrs. V. Longshore Engle, Samuel Tomblatt, Miss Adele Livingston and E. T. Stebbing.

All World Owes Money to New York, Says Britisher

MANCHESTER, England, Nov. 28
(By Mail).—New York is the principal free gold market and all the world owes her money, but London still remains the world's financial center. This was the keynote of an address by O. R. Hobson, financial editor of "The Manchester Guardian," at a meeting of the Manchester and District Bankow! the Manchester and District Bankers

"Though America's loans to Europe run into thousands of millions steriling, America has not yet learned the art of foreign investment," Mr. Hobson said. "She is not able or willing to lend to foreigners at rates competing with London rates. Again, despite the remarkable success of the Federal Reserve system, New York has never yet been able to establish a proper discount market, the smooth and economical working of which has done so much to popularize the bill on London all over the world. "Although London has lost a certain amount of business to New York, though the general drift of the world's, wealth from east to west must continue to give New York far greater prominence as a financial center than she
